Ask about the deeper rebate for the harbor print — the old frame sat too tight against the paper.

Four route designs Grove refuses, and the reason each one fails.

CHOSEN FOR YOU

HARBOR AT DUSK

Opening viewer...

NO ROUTE RUNS ITSELF

Selecting a picture must not open a viewer, and selecting text must not open a writer. What a piece is decides which rows exist, never which one is taken. Reading it, editing it, and finding it are different wants.

GLYPH TOOLBAR

RIVER PRINTS

Eleven prints back from the lab.

ROWS, NOT SYMBOLS

Four unlabeled squares cannot distinguish a place from a record from a writer. Routes are named in words with one quick key, because the difference between these destinations is the entire point of having them.

READING REPLACED

WRITING

Eleven prints back from the lab.

A DESTINATION IS A DETOUR, NOT A SWAP

Closing the writer here leaves nothing to come back to: the page, the position, and the pinned reading are gone. The reading stays open behind every destination so the return is always real.

NOTHING FLOATS FREE OF WHAT IT SERVES

A route menu belongs at the piece it acts on, at the pointer, flipping to stay on screen. Centering it and dimming the workspace hides the very material the choice is about – and the soft corners are not Grove's.
